

Pad Thai RESTAURANT

A unique experience at West Malling

Eating Thai food

The food is served in the oriental manner with several dishes being placed in the centre of the table and shared by all the people eating.

Chopsticks and bowls are not used unless Chinese food is being eaten. Instead the Thai eat with a spoon and a fork off a flat plate. They pile the plate with rice and sample other dishes in turn, a single spoonful being taken at a time. Dishes are never mixed on the eating plate because each has a distinct flavour and mixing them tends to ruin them.

At Pad Thai, Manta & her chef's Nui & Sao do their utmost to keep to the true, authentic Thai recipes in all our dishes. Our non-Thai customers should note that some Thai food can be very hot and spicy and they should feel free to ask us to adjust the seasoning to suit them, either mild or full Thai heat. To ensure freshness of flavour and to enable individual preferences to be taken into account, all dishes are cooked to order.

Cooking your order will sometimes lead to an unavoidable delay in serving your meal, especially when we are busy. We request your patience.

Enjoy your meal.
